

MY COMMITMENT TO YOU

My love for real estate began at an early age. Raised in Rome, Italy, I watched my family build up two houses, as homes and financial investments. Now with ten years in the United States, I use this broad experience to achieve the best results for my clients.

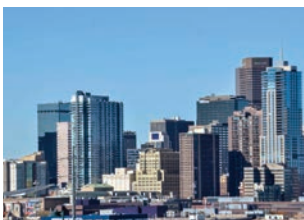

As a mom of two active boys, I am thrilled to be living with my family in beautiful Colorado, one of the greatest places to call home.

I am immersed in the work and ongoing training necessary for today's Colorado housing market. I am creative at overcoming obstacles and I love all parts of the home buying and selling process.

It is part of my Italian heritage to be personal, connected, and offer attentive customer service. I am committed to helping you find a home that meets all of your wants and needs.

Contact me today to make your real estate desires a reality.

- Olivia

"I can honestly say that Olivia was the best realtor I have ever worked with. She sold bought a property for me and she was incredible. She informed me about every step and I am very happy with her work ethics. She is very professional and prompt. I would recommend her to everyone no matter what your budget or requests are." Anne

"Any time I call Olivia with a question she answers." Roberto

"Olivia is very responsible and committed to helping us with every single detail." Eder
